ANY WOMAN CAN SAVE $5 AN HOUR

Put gasoline and solvite in a wash boiler and dry clean everything.

Ever dry clean at home? Well, it's so easy, inexpensive and the results so pleasing you'll be surprised. Any woman can clean and renew the brightness of ribbons, silks, satins, laces, yokes, silk shirtwaists, kid gloves and shoes, fur neckties, children's coats, suits, caps, swim, lawn, and many other articles. You can wash, wring, and dry clean everything in a wash boiler and dry clean everything.

Get two ounces of solvite at any drug store and put it in two gallons of gasoline where it quickly dissolves. Then put in the goods to be cleaned, rub a little and out they come looking as bright and fresh as new. You will find nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles, requiring no pressing.

Any woman can do five dollars' worth of home dry cleaning in a few moments and you can't make a mistake. Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline and the drug store will sell you two ounces of solvite which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dish pan completes your dry-cleaning outfit.

PEDDLERS' ORDINANCE

Now in Effect—Long Desired by Local Merchants.

The new by-law adopted at the annual town meeting Monday regulating the vendors and hawkers of goods, wares and merchandise from house to house to take out a license is in effect. This is a rule that Killingly business men have wanted put in force for long time. It will have the effect of keeping many transient peddlers out of the town, and in some cases of driving in here from Providence and other cities and selling goods, without paying a cent of revenue to the town, in competition with housewifery who pay taxes to the town of Killingly.

The new by-law requires the taking out of a license from the town clerk's office, and the charge for the same is $20 a year. This is not an excessive charge, all facts considered.

The license fee is aimed directly at the outside dealers, but a local peddler, under certain circumstances, may also be liable to pay it, providing he has no store or is not engaged in the sale of articles that come under the exemptions in the act.

Peddlers who come to town now and attempt to do business without having paid the necessary fee will be liable to a fine of $5 for each offense.

Drill Season Soon to Open.

The annual drill season of the Thirtieth company opens the first Monday in November. By that time the many changes and alterations that are being made at the state armory will be so far advanced and in some cases completed, as not to interfere with the drill routine, as happened last year.

The new floor beams, on which will rest the joists and boarding that will bring the drill shed floor up to the level of the floor at the main entrance of the armory, are in place.

When the improvements now under way are completed there will be added attraction for young men to join the company, as the armory will be so arranged and equipped as to afford spending pleasant evenings there. It is also possible that the national defense talk may result in living recruitment during the fall season.

PUTNAM

Moosup Loss Exciting Game—Score 5 to 3.

Putnam, Oct. 9.—For Pettit of the New York Giants' hurling staff pitched Putnam to a 5 to 3 victory over Moosup on Morse field Saturday afternoon.

Two thousand fans, representing about every section of the real eastern part of Connecticut, watched the contest and were generally agreed that it was the kind to be listed as really worth while, not just because Putnam won, although that was exceedingly gratifying to Putnam rooters, but as much because it furnished a lot of exciting pastime and offered the rooters an opportunity to see some of the performers from the big show at work.

There were representatives of four or five different leagues in the lineup of the two teams, the Putnam outfit having three Giants' hurlers, Pettit, Catching, Dyer, at third, and another big league diamond star covering first who, for good and sufficient reasons, is well known in the box score as "Graham." He was quickly identified, however, by some dyed-in-the-wool fans who have seen many games in the big circuit.

Faddy Green, with practically the regular Moosup team behind him, did the twirling for the visitors, and had better control than he has had in the past. He was somewhat of a different story to chronicle. As it was, he passed seven men, enough to lose an average ball game in any old place or time. This falling and two errors behind him shut the visitors out of a chance to hold Putnam to a low score, if not to do better.

The game was featured by a number of rather spectacular plays and it was rather remarkable that while Moosup could not seem to get to Pettit at all until the last third of the game, they finally managed to outwit Putnam by a margin of two runs. Pettit started off, as did Green, in a manner to indicate the hanging up of a strikeout record. He got six men by the whiff route in the first three innings and a total of 13 during the game, but when they did get to him in the seventh and eighth innings the visitors had the Putnam hurler worried for a minute as to just what was going to happen.

Putnam got its first run in the second inning when Dyer hit a fast grounder which Rock fumbled. Dyer stole second and went to third on a passed ball, scoring when Keeney sent a timely single clipping the grass out in right field. Incidentally, Mr. Keeney had a very ambitious day with the willow, coming across with a fine, healthy two base wallop in the fourth that sent Dyer and Graham home with runs. At this stage of the game two men were out and Graham and Dyer had landed on the paths as the result of free passes from Green.

Pettit contributed a fancy stunt in the seventh when he stole home, being declared safe in a hair-trigger decision at the plate. Catcher Murphy was vociferous in his claim that Pettit had been touched out, but Umpire McCauley waved him away. In the eighth Putnam got its final run.

With a series of hits and some ragged baseball on the part of Putnam, the visitors grabbed two runs in the seventh and another in the eighth, but could not get enough steam in their punch to tie up the score.

For Moosup, Murphy and Houlihan—doing credit to their friends from Norwich and vicinity who were watching the game—were there with the wallop, each being credited with two base hits. O'Neil of the visitors also managed to get aboard with two safe ones.

The game was run up in five times, an hour and 40 minutes being set down as the playing time.

The score:

Putnam	Moosup
Porter, 4	Keeney, 4
Burns, 2	McCauley, 1
Wheat, 1	Green, 1
Rock, 1	McCormick, 1
Graham, 1	Boyd, 1

KIDNEY DISORDERS QUICKLY RELIEVED

Hundreds of people have been relieved of the agonies caused by chronic diseased or clogged-up kidneys by using Solvax, the new remedy that quickly reaches the source of all kidney complaints.

You suffer with pains in your back or sides or have any signs of kidney or bladder trouble, such as rheumatic pains, purty swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired and run-down, or both, and cannot get any relief, take Solvax quickly and surely relieve you of your misery.

Solvax is probably the most potent remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It neutralizes, dissolves and makes the kidneys spit out all the uric acid and poisons left by the blood, and renders the kidneys and urinary organs clean, vigorous and healthy.

Many of the best druggists say that medicine ought to be paid for unless it does a user some good. Solvax therefore sells under a positive guarantee: If it relieves your kidney or urinary troubles, or your money refunded. Try Solvax today and if you cannot see and feel a decided change for the better just go to the druggist from whom you bought it and tell him you want your money back and he will return it without question. This is the strongest argument that can be offered in favor of any medicine. Solvax is sold in Norwich and vicinity by Lee Osgood and other leading dealers.
